

Privacy statement:

International Research and Publications in Medical Sciences (IRPMS) Journal is dedicated to protecting personal information and will make every reasonable effort to handle collected information appropriately. All information collected, as well as related requests, will be handled as carefully and efficiently as possible in accordance with IRPMS standards for integrity and objectivity.

In some circumstances, we may request personal information from you, such as your name, e-mail address, institutional name, or telephone number. Your response to these inquiries is strictly voluntary. IRPMS uses this information to customize your experience and interface with our electronic resources. In general, you can visit our site (<http://www.irpms.com>) without divulging any personal information.

IRPMS journal also collects domain information as part of its analysis of the use of this site. These data enable us to become more familiar with whom customers visit our site, how often they visit, and what parts of the site they visit most often. IRPMS uses this information to improve its Web-based offerings. This information is collected automatically and requires no action on your part.

We treat our readers' information as private and confidential, and we will not disclose your data to third parties without your express permission or unless required by law. This statement may change from time to time, so please check back periodically. If you have any concerns about how your information is being used or questions about IRPMS Privacy Statement, please contact us.
